Dear Valued ONE Customers,

Tropical Storm Barry - UPDATE

National Weather Service

Hurricane Barry came ashore along the central Louisiana coastline as a minimal hurricane on Sat 7/13. The storm has been downgraded to a tropical depression as it continues to move north through Arkansas. The Mississippi level at Carrollton Gauge this morning is 16.13ft and is forecasted to crest at 17.00ft by tomorrow.

Coast Guard - Port Conditions

The USCG set the port condition to Normal and reopened the river to vessel traffic at 0600 Sun 7/14. The Bar Pilots have reduced the draft at SWP to 42ft. Dredging at the SWP has commence this morning.

Container Terminals

Both POA & NOT terminal reopened their gate this morning at 0700 and there are no reports of any significant damage at either facility

Vessel Schedule

AL-4 MOL Gratitude 124 is currently enroute to New Orleans with an ETA to SWP at 1800 7/15. Do not anticipate any significant delays when she goes to work at Napoleon Terminal Tue 7/16.

Sincerely,
Ocean Network Express (North America) Inc.
